Happy Customers who return w/ friends

To us, hospitality is the call to gather around the table, to have an amazing meal w/ inspiring service, and to serve our community. This has been our "why" since 2008. We love meeting you and knowing your stories.

Sky-rocketing food prices, supply chain issues, and labor shortages are all very real and are impacting us greatly. Thanks for hanging with us always, and particularly recently. Thanks for contributing to keeping a "mom and pop" local restaurant going. We need one another, places for local conversations, and a places to meet our friends and neighbors.

With much appreciation, Chef BJ, Nicole, and the Valley Cafe staff
