Happy Customers who return w/ friends

To us, hospitality is the call to gather around the table, to have an amazing meal with inspiring service, and to serve our community. This has been our "why" since 2008. We love meeting you and knowing your stories.

The events of the past several years have impacted us all greatly. Thank you for hanging with us through all the food price increase, supply chain issues and labor shortages. Thanks for contributing to keeping a "mom and pop" local restaurant going. We need one another, places for local conversations, and a places to meet our friends and neighbors.

With much appreciation,
Chef BJ, Nicole, and the Valley Cafe Staff
